

FEDERATED CITY EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM
CODE OF CONDUCT

INTRODUCTION & BACKGROUND

- 1) The success and effectiveness of the Board require that all board members abide by the highest standards of professionalism, ethics, and integrity. To confirm its commitment to such standards the Board has established this Code of Conduct, which sets out the Board's expectations concerning general standards of conduct, compliance with ethics-related legislation, and enforcement.

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

- 2) Board members shall:
 - a) Act with decorum, integrity, and professionalism in all aspects of their duties and in any interaction with fellow Board members, Staff, vendors, and stakeholders of the System.
 - b) Refrain from any behavior or activity that may reflect poorly on the image or reputation of the Board or the System.
 - c) Comply with all policies and rules of the Board.
 - d) Make a good faith effort to attend, in their entirety, all meetings of the Board and committees on which they serve, and to be sufficiently prepared for all such meetings.
 - e) Be active, engaged, and constructive in all meetings of the Board and of committees on which they serve.
 - f) Build and maintain the knowledge necessary to fulfill their fiduciary responsibilities.
- 3) Any board member who believes the conduct of a fellow board member falls short of the above expectations is encouraged to discuss the matter directly with the board member in question or ask the Board Chair or the Vice Chair to address the matter. Alternatively, the board member may request that the concern be placed on the Board's agenda for consideration.
- 4) If the Board determines that the conduct of a board member falls short of the above expectations, the Board may take any action it deems appropriate, including but not limited to:
 - a) Referring the matter to the Audit Committee of the Board for further investigation.
 - b) Removing the board member in question from the position of Board Chair, Board Vice-Chair, or committee chair, or from any committee on which the board member serves.
 - c) Prohibiting the board member in question from serving as Board Chair, Board Vice-Chair, committee chair, or a member of any committee for a specified period of time.
 - d) Limiting the board member's travel privileges, if the violation relates to travel.
 - e) Censuring the board member in question.
 - f) Communicating the Board's concerns to any party and by any means the Board deems appropriate.
 - g) Any other lawful action the Board deems appropriate.
- 5) Prior to arriving at a determination and taking any of the actions listed in paragraph 4 above, the Board shall provide the board member in question an opportunity at a board meeting to respond to the allegation. Furthermore, the board member shall be asked to recuse himself from any board or committee discussions in relation to the allegation, except when invited to respond.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS & CITY POLICY

- 6) Board members are fiduciaries and are therefore subject to fiduciary duties set out in law. To demonstrate their commitment to fulfilling their fiduciary duties, board members shall annually acknowledge in writing that they are fiduciaries of the System and that they understand all of the requirements such status entails. Board members' acknowledgements shall be submitted to the General Counsel.
- 7) In addition to meeting their fiduciary duties, board members are subject to numerous requirements contained in federal, state, and local law, and City Council policy. Board members are fully responsible for meeting these requirements. The Board however shall make resources available to help board members understand and comply with these requirements.
- 8) The Board, a board committee, or individual board members shall report suspected violations of the law or city policy to the General Counsel in a timely manner. The General Counsel shall initiate any steps necessary to address the allegation, and report to the Board as appropriate.

EDUCATION & RESOURCES

- 9) Upon their appointment to the Board, each board member shall in a timely manner be provided a copy of this Code of Conduct, and shall be briefed by Staff or the General Counsel as to its contents.
- 10) Staff shall prepare a reference manual for board members summarizing the various ethics-related requirements contained in common law, state and local legislation, and City Council policy. At a minimum, the manual should address:
 - a) Common law fiduciary duties.
 - b) Conflict of interest.
 - c) The Political Reform Act.
 - i. Form 700 and Family Gift Report
 - d) California Government Code Section 7513.95 dealing with the provision of investment products by board members.
 - e) The Ralph M. Brown Act and City Sunshine Ordinances.
 - f) California Code Section 53234 dealing with ethics training.
 - g) Relevant policies of the City Council.
 - h) Parliamentary procedure or rules of order.
 - i) Annual Declaration of No Known Conflicts
 - j) Ethics and sexual harassment.
- 11) The above manual is expected to be developed and updated over time. Staff need not prepare original materials, but may instead incorporate reference documents or booklets already available. The goal of the manual is to provide board members with useful, user-friendly resources to help them better understand and comply with the many legal requirements applicable to them.
- 12) The Board's orientation and continuing education program shall also address the contents of this Code of Conduct.
- 13) Board members are expected to seek advice or clarification as needed from the General Counsel or the CEO regarding this Code of Conduct and the many ethics-related legal requirements applicable to the Board.

POLICY REVIEW & HISTORY

14) The Board shall review this policy at least every five years.

15) The Board adopted this policy on August 16, 2012. Reviewed and amended October 19, 2017; May 21, 2020; March 18, 2021.
